

Custom Series Service Counters

Customers requiring a fully customized store fixture can rely on the Lyons design team to create the most unique service counters for any retail environment. With the capabilities to engineer specific operations or design requirements, Lyons can work with retailers of any size to produce custom solutions. Constructed of durable welded steel, Lyons retail fixtures can be manufactured in custom colors and materials to support any retail brand.

FEATURES

- Custom designed to retailer specifications
- Flexible configurations
- Custom storage areas
- Available in custom colors and materials
- Ergonomically designed
- ADA compliant
- Durable welded construction

Lyons custom service counter designs are made to order based on customer specifications. No fixture is too large or small for our creative design team.

For more information, please contact us at sales@hlllyonsco.com.